What happens after you have applied for primary school reception 2016

You will be sent an email during the evening of 17 April 2017 telling you the outcome of your application if you applied online.

You must respond to the offer by 2 May 2017 at the latest. Your offer is based on the address you have given; if you have changed address or if you change your address in the future you must let us know. Offers made on the basis of false information or addresses that can't be verified will be withdrawn.

If an offer can be made to your child at one of the schools listed as your:

first preference on your application, you will receive this information by email during the evening of 17 April 2017. Some parents who do not have access to a computer will be posted their outcome by letter on 17 April 2017 by first class post.

If it is for a lower ranked school, second to sixth preferences or an alternative school, the email will confirm that you have been offered the highest possible school preference at this time: your child's name will appear on the waiting lists of those schools ranked at a higher preference on your application; any schools ranked at a lower preference have been withdrawn automatically.
