Message from the Head Teacher

Dear Parents/Carers and children,

Learning is so difficult. But each difficult journey starts with the first step, according to Zen Buddhist philosophy. Our steps this week have been bold. Parent workshops have started to explore what we mean by learning; some 40 parents attended. Our staff had a really exciting session led by Jane Wheeler about Compassionate Communication, on which our Behaviour Management system is based. And our children have been making kites to celebrate Thai Pongol, an Indian festival for harvest and to be grateful for the food we are given. It is always delightful to see children in my office, showing me their learning outcomes, talking about what they have done.

Snow is on the way. I will only close the school if we have no basic services or if the health and safety of parents, children and staff is compromised. Please check the school website and our facebook page (see link overleaf). Have a safe weekend – if there is enough snow, I hope your Snow Men and Women are happy and snow fights full of fun!

With warm wishes, James Biddulph, Head Teacher

Senior Leaders' Meeting interrupted for urgent survey about our favourite toys. Questions asked, the children were off researching their topic about toys.

survey online. The average parent engagement with this OFSTED online survey is 4-6 ...so 37 is good. But we want every parent to contribute. What a statement to our community if we have 110 – one for each child. Please login and complete the survey – and if you put disagree or strongly disagree with any statement please come and talk to us so we know what we need to do to improve.

School Ambassadors:

We are introducing school ambassadors at Avanti Court which is part of our strategy to empower children to lead aspects of their school and contribute to decisions about the school. The Ambassador system is the 'Democracy' strand of the pupil voice strategy. Other roles will include Prefects in Year 6 – employed to help in the school, Ecology Teams (The Green Team), monitors, Peer mediators and play helpers...and who knows what else. Reception children are chosen to be an Ambassador but from Year 1 children have to submit a written application and are voted in by their friends in class.
