Dear ..

I have received a report about your unacceptable conduct on [DATE] at approximately [TIME] when I have been informed that you [SUMMARY OF INCIDENT, INCLUDING EFFECT UPON STAFF, PUPILS OR OTHER PARENTS].

I must inform you that Avanti Court Primary School will not tolerate conduct of this nature on its premises and will act to defend its teachers, members of staff, students and their parents, and other members of the school community.

I am therefore putting you on notice that, if I receive a further report of unacceptable conduct from you, I will have no option but to instigate the school's formal procedure to withdraw your permission to enter or be on the premises of Avanti Court Primary School.

A copy of the school's Policy for Dealing with Unacceptable Behaviour on School Premises is attached for your consideration.

I should warn you that, if your permission to enter or be on school premises is withdrawn, you can be removed from the premises by a police officer and you may be prosecuted under Section 547 of the Education Act 1996. If convicted under that section, you will be liable to a fine of up to £500.00 and have a criminal conviction recorded against you.

If you have any concerns about the school which have led to your unacceptable conduct, you should raise these with the school in accordance with the school's Complaints Policy, a copy of which is attached for your consideration.

I trust that we will now be able to put this matter firmly behind us.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Walters

Dear ...

[Further to my letter dated [DATE],]I have received a further report about your unacceptable conduct on [DATE] at approximately [TIME] when it is alleged that you [SUMMARY OF INCIDENT, INCLUDING EFFECT UPON STAFF, PUPILS OR OTHER PARENTS].

I must inform you that Avanti Court Primary School will not tolerate conduct of this nature on its premises and will act to defend its teachers, members of staff, students and their parents, and other members of the school community. I am therefore instructing you that (for a temporary period) you are not to enter or be on the school's premises.

If you do not comply with this instruction, I shall arrange for a police officer to remove you from the premises and you may be prosecuted under Section 547 of the Education Act 1996. If convicted under this section, you are liable to a fine of up to £500.00 and a criminal conviction will be recorded against you.

The withdrawal of permission for you to enter or be on the school premises takes effect immediately. However, the Chair of Governors will need to decide whether my decision should be confirmed. Before the review of my decision takes place, you have the opportunity to provide in writing any comments or observations of your own in relation to the report of your conduct. These comments may include any expressions of regret on your part and any assurances you are prepared to give about your future good conduct.

To enable the Chair of Governors to review my decision at an early stage, you are asked to send any written comments you wish to make within five school days from the date of this letter, i.e. by [DATE]. The Chair of Governors will review my decision within ten school days of the date of this letter, whether or not any written comments are received from you.

If, after considering your written comments, the Chair of Governors takes the view that my decision should be confirmed, you will be provided with written details of when a further review of the decision will take place.

A copy of the school's Policy for Dealing with Unacceptable Behaviour on School premises is attached for your consideration.

[In the case of a primary/secondary school children insert:

Until the review has taken place, you may bring your [son][daughter][children] to school and collect [him][her][them] at the end of the school day, but you must not go beyond the school gate or cross the boundary of the school premises.]

If you have any concerns about the school which have led to your unacceptable conduct, you should raise these with the school in accordance with the school's Complaints Policy, a copy of which is attached for your consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Walters

Dear ...

On [DATE], the Headteacher wrote to you informing you that [she] had withdrawn permission for you to enter and be on the premises of Avanti Court Primary School following a report of your unacceptable conduct on [DATE]. This followed an earlier incidence of unacceptable conduct on [DATE], following which the Headteacher wrote to you warning you that the school's formal procedure for withdrawing your permission to enter or be on the school's premises would be instigated if your unacceptable behaviour was repeated.

To enable me to determine whether to confirm the decision for a longer period, you were given the opportunity of providing your written comments in relation to the incident by [DATE].

[Insert Either:

As at the date of this letter, I have not received any written comments from you, and I have therefore reviewed the Headteacher's decision on consideration of the documentation I have been provided with by the school only.]

Or:

I received your written comments on [DATE], the contents of which I have carefully considered, together with documentation I have been provided with by the school.

I have determined that the decision to withdraw permission for you to come onto the school's premises should be confirmed.

I am therefore instructing that you are not to enter or be on the school's premises without the prior knowledge and permission of the Headteacher which will only be given for a good reason (for example, a parents' evening or a pre-arranged meeting).

If you do not comply with this instruction, the school will arrange for a police officer to remove you from the premises, and you may be prosecuted under Section 547 of the Education Act 1996. If convicted, you are liable to a fine of up to £500.00 and a criminal conviction will be recorded against you.

Notwithstanding this decision, the Headteacher, other members of staff and the Governing Body remain committed to the education of your [son][daughter][children], who must continue to attend school as normal under the arrangements set out in the letter dated [DATE].

I will take steps to review the continuance of this decision again on [DATE]. In deciding whether it is necessary to extend the withdrawal of permission to enter or be on the school's premises, I will take into account the extent of your compliance with my instruction, any appropriate and sincere expressions of regret and any assurances of future good conduct received from yourself, together with evidence of your co-operation with the school in other respects.

If you wish to provide additional written comments for me to consider when I carry out my further review, please send them to the school to arrive at least five working days before the date of my further review, i.e. by [DATE]. Any such additional comments should be restricted to your conduct since the decision was last confirmed or any new consequences of the decision, and should not repeat comments provided previously of which I am already in possession.

Yours sincerely,

CHAIR OF GOVERNORS

I have decided that it is not necessary to confirm this decision on this occasion, and I am therefore restoring to you permission to enter and be on the school's premises, with immediate effect.

I do, however, remain concerned in relation to your conduct on [DATE], and I must warn you that, if there is any repetition of your behaviour, the Headteacher will not hesitate to withdraw permission for you to come on to the school's premises again.

I hope that we can now draw a line under this matter and look forward to an improved relationship between yourself and the school in the future.
