

Literacy

SATS Revision Units:

Continue with Macbeth. Classic Fiction and Journalistic Writing.

The Power of Imagery: The Sea by James Reeves, Sea-Fever by John Masefield (1878-1967).

Text: The London Eye Mysteries by Siobhon Dowd: A range of writing which will include fiction, non-fiction and poetry. SPaG (Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar)

Shared reading of a range of genres.

Expressive Arts

Artis:

Art: Mountain collages. Nicholas Roerich
Cross curricular Art: Living things and their habitats.

Computing

Databases: Solving problems, use simulations (formulae), answer 'what if ...?' questions and check predictions).

Digital Imagery: explore features of a given video editing or animation package, plan a storyboard for a video or animation to suit a purpose, film, create, edit and refine to ensure quality; present to an audience.

Maths

Revision Units: Geometry, Statistics, Ratio and Proportion, Algebra, Number & Measurement.

Transition Units: Mastery in Mathematics.

YEAR 6

Summer Term 1&2, 2016

Moving on & We are performers.

Humanities:

Our Mountain Environment

Geographical skills and fieldwork- locate the world's mountains using maps,

Describe and understand key aspects of major mountains, mountain investigation, mountain climates, holiday time, and impact of tourism.

Science

Living Things and their habitats

How living things are classified into broad groups.

Reasons for classifying plants and animals based on specific characteristics.

Philosophy Religion and Ethics:

Explore the theme: Living Values: Rites of Passage-they will explore life journeys and their responses to stability, change and related issues such as making choices in life.

PSHE

Anti-bullying: the consequences of anti-social and aggressive behaviours.

The value of service and duty, celebrating success, the feelings and needs related to being grateful and the role of friendship.

Growing up: What's happening to me? How am I behaving? How are other people behaving?

Transition and related issues

Sanskrit & P.E.

Occupations

Listening. Speaking, Reading and Writing

What is in the news?

PE: Cricket & Athletics